SPONSORSHIPS AND SILENT AUCTION DONATIONS

- Kim Hillyer (IEO Vice-President)

I know it's early to be thinking of the end of the year already, but it'll be upon us before we know it. The IEO is already preparing for year-end awards and the banquet. We will be at a new location this year to accommodate more people. We are expecting a great turnout for a couple of reasons. One, we have a great time and the awards are awesome, but, also, Sam Barish (USDF President) is going to be our guest keynote speaker because the IEO is celebrating its 50th year.

I'm writing to all of you for a couple of reasons. First, I'm hoping to encourage you to attend the shows and volunteer, so you can be eligible for one of these great awards. There is only 1 show left, therefore your last chance to volunteer for awards. Second, we will be having a silent auction again this year at the banquet. This has been a great success the last two years, and it has helped to pay for the great awards we've been able to give. We need your help. We need items and/or services to auction off. If you have anything you'd like to donate for this purpose, it would be greatly appreciated. Also, if you know any businesses, or friends who would like some advertisement (They will be listed on our website along with any site links), please ask them if they would like to donate for our banquet in Nov. Gift certificates and theme baskets do very well. Some barns go together and do a farm basket full of horsey items. If you have any questions as to what we need, please feel free to contact me, and I will be glad to answer your questions. Please send the auction items to me, Kim Hillyer at: 129 Blue Hill School Rd., Dover, Pa 17315. Or if we need to work out a way for me to pick them up, contact me at ironrockfarm-hillyer@comcast.net, or 717-292-5515. I have gotten commitments for a few items, but need much more to make this a success.

Also, there are other sponsorship opportunities available. Please go to the IEO website for the sponsorship form if you, or anybody you know would interested in being a sponsor for IEO. Sponsors are listed on the website, and we also offer site links to any sponsors websites. These sponsorships help to pay for awards as well. There are sponsorships available for everything from class sponsors to year-end award sponsorships. Please take a look and see if there is a sponsorship that interests you. Thank you, and as always, we appreciate your participation and efforts.

Display Board and Website

The Display board is complete. As I get newer photos to display, I will add them to the board. I am also looking for any photos that could be displayed on the website. I know Anne Duncan has taken lots at the IEO shows, so I'm sure they're out there. If you are willing to allow us to post your photos, let me know, and I will see what I can get from Anne to post.

Remember if you are a member, and you've been to 3 or more shows, you need to have volunteered 2 half days or 1 full day to receive year-end awards. If you are unsure of your volunteer hours, contact Kim Hillyer, and I can check them for you. If you need to know if you are up for an award, I can also check the current standings for you. Kim Hillyer, ironrockfarm-hillyer@comcast.net

BLM CHAMPIONSHIPS AT VIRGINIA HORSE CENTER

The 26th Annual CBLM Memorial Championships will be held at the Virginia Horse Center, Lexington, VA, hosted by Virginia Dressage Association. VADA is expecting another big championship show and needs your help to continue to maintaining the standard of excellence that the VADA hosted championships are known for. We have a number of sponsorship opportunities available from a open class sponsor, championship class sponsor, Daily Level sponsor or High Score for the show. Please visit www.cblm.org or www.virginiadressage.org for more details. You can also contact Casey Hobaugh at kayakjjh@adelphia.net. Vendors are welcome. Contact Casey for more information. Volunteers always needed. Contact volunteer coordinator Holly Veloso, velosoh@yahoo.com. Visit VADA's web site for more information on volunteering for VADA - www.virginiadressage.org.

YOUR USDF PURCHASES

USDF announced GMO point rewards for items purchased thru USDF: IEO would get a $1.00 towards merchandise for each point earned. The points can then be redeemed by the GMO to purchase USDF merchandise! USDF was contacted and the IEO does not need to do a thing! Anyone can order and as long as the IEO's GMO # 103 is chosen when the order is placed, points are awarded to the IEO. This is a great opportunity for the IEO to purchase USDF items for various functions with minimal amount of effort! So tell your family & friends to shop USDF!

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Celebrating 50 Years of Dressage
1958-2008

August certainly has been exciting! The team competition held on August 17, 2008 had 117 entries. Evelyn Susol and Marilyn Ostra did a terrific job of organizing and scheduling two rings. This is the first time in over 10 years that the IEO ran two rings. Everyone who volunteered is to be commended! It was a little hectic in the morning, for that we apologize.

The last schooling show for 2008 will be held at Spring Valley Park on September 21, 2008. Volunteers for ring set up and day of the show are needed. Please contact Gloria McCleary or Kim Hillyer. As some of you know, several members have been running shows and attempting to show their horses. This is doable but not without volunteers willing to step up when needed. In order for show participants to receive year end awards and/or series end awards, a lot of time and effort must be expended to make this a reality. The IEO needs more individuals willing to learn the various jobs. Even if you can volunteer for ½ a day this is greatly appreciated!! Some of us old timers still think like the 'Every Ready Bunny' but the truth is our batteries get low sooner! Please learn one of the following show duties and help the bunny keep on going! Duties include scribe, announcer, paddock manager, scorer, show organizer and show secretary. If learning at a show is not your style, please contact me & we will do a learning session together. I will gladly assist anyone who is offering their time and effort. As our club continues to grow these issues must be addressed or our shows will be enjoyable for many and work for a few. My goal is enjoyable for all!!!

The plans for the November 8, 2008 banquet are being finalized. USDF President Sam Barish will be our quest speaker at this memorable 50th Anniversary celebration and awards banquet. Kim Hillyer is soliciting items for the silent auction-see Kim's article later in the newsletter. The table can only be a success if items are available. Kim has been contacted by individuals with donations as well as stables who are doing theme baskets. Keep in mind that if you are unable to do this alone there are advantages to contacting a couple of friends and pulling your resources together. How about those teams who entered the team competition? Any items are desired since this keeps the auction table fun and interesting. Some ideas for auction items include gas cards, grocery cards, items from local tack shops, or local artisans. Please be creative as this is a wonderful opportunity to support your club with donations or do some early Christmas shopping!

This time of year also means nominations will be accepted for the 2009 board and committee positions. I realize that time management is an issue for all of us. However, if there are enough interested individuals then club members can rotate thru the various positions. This creates a two fold benefit for the IEO: an increased member knowledge base which in turn prevents burnout. There are positions which are key to the club but can be accomplished with only limited volunteer hours. Please contact Maggie Hawn if you are interested in serving in any capacity.

The Oct. meeting will be on Friday, Oct. 3rd at 6:30 PM. The location will be announced. Please remember to get in your board and officer nominations. Hope your summer has been fun filled!
Karen Schaale, President

DRESSAGE AT DEVON EVENTS

Dressage at Devon is just a couple of weeks away and wants to remind everyone of the following exciting events: 1. RECEPTION FOR REGION 1 GMO MEMBERS Hosted by DVCTA Dressage at Devon in the Devon Room Friday, September 26, 2008 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. Tickets will serve as a gate pass for all of Friday and gain admittance to the GMO Reception, which includes a buffet, cash bar, and a chance to meet other dressage enthusiasts. Tickets must be pre-ordered and pre-paid. Please send a check for $10.00 (payable to Dressage at Devon) and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Susan Nicholas, 252 Goat Island Road, Gladys, VA 24554. Clayton, BVMS, PhD, MRCVS will be the featured speaker at the Dressage at Devon Forum on Wednesday, September 24th. Participants will enjoy a brief lecture as well as a lively question and answer discussion session. A gourmet boxed dinner and soft drinks will be served. There will also be a cash bar. The lecture, Fitness Training to Maximize Dressage Performance, will address the fitness requirements of dressage horses at different levels of training, including exercises that can be used to improve the horse's fitness and strength in a highly sport-specific manner. Descriptions will include exercises performed from the ground, cross-training exercises and strength training exercises. Dr. Clayton will also discuss performance issues related to lack of strength or suppleness. A graduate of the University of Glasgow, Dr. Clayton is a professor and the McPhail Dressage Chair in the Department of Large Animal Clinical Sciences at Michigan State University. She has focused her professional career on the study of the movement of horses, including gait analysis, lameness mechanics and the conditioning of sport horses. Dr. Clayton is also an accomplished equestrian with Bronze, Silver and Gold medals from the United States Dressage Federation Fitness Training to Maximize Dressage Performance will be held in the Devon Room at the 34th Annual Dressage at Devon Horse Show, on the Devon Horse Show Grounds in Devon, PA. The Forum will begin at 7:00 (doors open at 6:00 pm.). Tickets are $40 and include dinner. For information or to purchase tickets, contact Anne Moss at 610-380-1518 or email annemoss@verizon.net. For reservations send your check for $40.00 made out to Dressage at Devon to: Anne Moss 1530 N. Chatham Road Coatesville, PA 19320 Dressage at Devon, presented by Horseworld Ltd. and DressageClinic.com, takes place at the Devon Horse Show Grounds, Route 30, in Devon, Pennsylvania, September 23rd through 28th. MORE RAVE REVIEWS FOR THE CHRISTIAN BACHINGER CLINIC

Hello IEO; here's is what I have continued on with my horses Gala and Sichi since the clinic they were more relaxed and Gala had found better self carriage, despite her tension during the clinic because of the stallions, she has continued to find more harmony in her work.

Sichi found better engagement from the transitions that we did and in finding his balance and waiting in the canter departures. He had returned to work after a long injury and complications from that injury. I appreciate the opportunity to ride with Christian he was a very pleasant experience.

Sincerely, Susan N. Mimm, West Chester, Pa. 610-793-4098

Odie and I want to thank you for all your hard work in making this wonderful clinic possible. It was amazing! I am still on cloud nine. (But not Odie; too much work). Everything was nothing but positive, from the venue, the barn staff, the schedule, the other riders and auditors, and of course, Christian. Everything ran so smoothly, and I learned as much from watching the other rides as I did from riding. I also really enjoyed going out to dinner with everyone and relaxing. It was kind of a bummer coming home to real life. I can't wait until next year! Vielen dank! - Carol Lesnefsky and Odie

Celebrate I.E.O.'s 50th Anniversary

The IEO membership year begins December 1 and ends November 30 of the following year. Although IEO membership has increased over the past several years, the club would like to do an outreach for perspective members. Dressage is an equine discipline that can benefit so many riders and horses. Please share our club's benefits with other equine enthusiasts! We can thank board member, Kristin Herzing for outlining the Top 10 Reasons for joining the IEO. Even some of us long time members may learn new tidbits so read on!

Top 10 Reasons to Join IEO

Competitions:

IEO offers 5 schooling shows each year. Our shows are friendly and stress-free yet offer the serious competitor an opportunity to prep for rated shows. Best of all, IEO members receive a discount on every class.

Group Membership to USDF:

IEO is a Group Member Organization (GMO) of the United States Dressage Federation. Members receive a complimentary monthly subscription to USDF Connection Magazine, the Official Publication of the USDF. In addition, your membership to IEO helps to fund USDF. With each membership to IEO, national dues are paid to USDF. Each year USDF offer various opportunities to GMOs and their membership which can be located on USDF's website and in the USDF Connection magazine.

Feel Good Factor:

IEO is America's first dressage club and is USDF's oldest GMO. In 2008 the IEO celebrated its 50th Anniversary. By becoming a member, you can ensure the continuation of a club that has spanned 50 years.

Awards:

IEO shows feature awards for high score at each level and a High Score of the Day Award. We also offer Series End Awards for our schooling show series. Year end awards are offered for both adults and young riders. The Leslie D. London Excellence Trophy is a perpetual trophy awarded to a horse/rider combination with the highest average score from our schooling shows at First Level and above. Rider Achievement Medals: bronze, silver and gold are also available.

Camaraderie:

Joining IEO is a great way to network and meet dressage enthusiasts in your area. We're fortunate to have so many great members. Whether you are looking for a horse, a boarding stable or instruction, IEO members have a lot to offer.

Col. Bengt Ljungquist Memorial Championships:

27 years in the making – these Championships are open to USDF members who belong to one of eighteen GMOs in Region 1. IEO contributes toward this Championship show and all USDF members who are active IEO members are eligible to compete. Championship participants will compete against some of the top dressage riders and horses in the nation.

Banquet: IEO holds an annual banquet each fall and members receive a discounted rate. Year end awards are presented as well as rider achievement medals and the Leslie D. London Excellence Trophy. The banquet also boasts a fabulous silent auction. Attending the banquet is a perfect opportunity for spouses and family members to enjoy some time together and support the DQ in their life.

Newsletter: What's going on in your area of the horse world? Our monthly IEO newsletter is a great way to find out. The newsletter features upcoming events, dressage news, clinic opportunities, classifieds & more!

Educational Opportunities:

IEO regularly sponsors clinics and educational opportunities for its members. We also have an extensive video and book library available to members only.

Volunteerism: Make the most of your membership and get involved. Meet others with your same interests. Get satisfaction of helping to promote this beautiful sport.
